FOREWORD

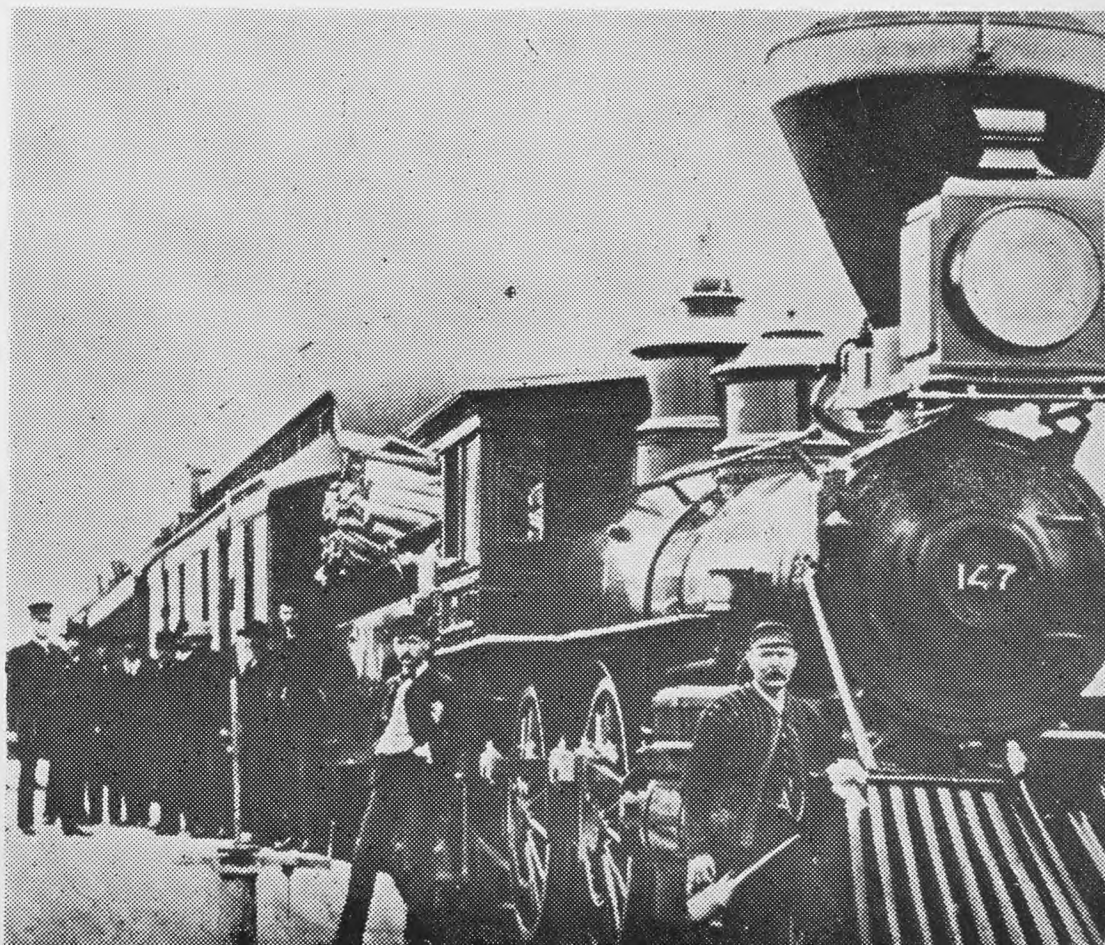

Year by year the motif of the Evergreen and Gold changes and in this our eighth publication, we have departed somewhat from tradition and present you with a new and different book—one with a historical theme.

Although our theme is everchanging, our objective remains constant. This is your book, a tangible reminder of happy days spent on this campus, listening to lectures, taking part in sports and club activities, attending the Wauneita and "Grad" formals, drinking coffee in the cafeteria, lounging in the S.U.B., and cramming for those inevitable exams. It is with optimism, therefore, that we put forth this volume, hoping that it will serve as a perpetual source of memories to those who spent the year 1953-54 at the Calgary Branch of the University of Alberta.

Here beginneth a tale . . . a tale of the old west . . . of tradition, progress and culture . . . a story of education.

Once upon a time, in the valley of the Bow, the Indian and Buffalo reigned supreme.

In 1875 on a natural camp site at the junction of the Bow and Elbow Rivers, the Northwest Mounted Police erected Fort Calgary. The traders began to move in, then the early settlers, and soon a village of tents and shacks had mushroomed around the stockade of the Mounted Police fort. Then came the railroad.

Calgary's story is the story of the West. When the C.P.R. trains entered the townsite for the first time, they brought many new settlers who opened up the land and began their homesteads. Soon Calgary was no longer a fort but a small town.

Up north in the city of Edmonton, the need for a western school of higher education was realized and the University of Alberta was established in 1908.

In 1908, a Normal School was set up in Calgary. Gradually the need for a University in the Southern part of the province became apparent and 1946 the Calgary Branch of the University became a reality.

The academic year 1953-54 at the Calgary Branch of the University of Alberta began in September when the STAFF assembled.

August 28, 1953.

VALEDICTORY

DON MARSON

Part of the Valedictory given at the Closing Exercises, April 9, 1954

Whenever individuals attempt to say farewell to their Alma Mater they frequently sound like old men bidding youth good-bye. No doubt in ten or twenty years' time we will become thinner on top, and thicker around the middle, and may consider youth having passed; not so, however, its many pleasing memories: I wonder whether Andy Birchill can still recall that cute girl in Grade Nine who used to smile at him so nicely and thus disorganized his well-planned lesson every time he faced the class! Or if Jim Hawkes remembers falling asleep in the practice teaching session while the supervising teacher was demonstrating.

Those of us leaving the Faculty of Education will find ourselves standing behind a teacher's desk instead of seated in front of one. If we can recall the problems which confronted us as students not so long ago, we will be better able to appreciate the difficulties of our own pupils, and in appreciating these we may become more effective teachers. Undoubtedly teaching will give most of us a challenging experience and the opportunity of watching young people increase "in wisdom and stature" under our guidance.

Those of you in the Faculty of Arts and Science will, in a few years' time, find yourselves in professions demanding the acceptance of considerable responsibility, and rewarded by a definite respect from the community. In your hands will be placed the doctor's scalpel and the dentist's drill, the law books and the intricate machinery of commerce. The community will expect a lot from you and I know you will be able to answer their demands.

It has become customary for a valedictorian to mention in some form or another the many benefits provided for graduates by a University. I am going to reverse this procedure and mention the things the University has not done for us. First, it has not given us an education. No man or woman can become educated in a period of three or four years regardless of the conditions which are present. At university we have been introduced to great literature, to science, and to mathematics, but the whole world of books, of knowledge, of machines and of man's achievement lies before us.

Secondly, the University has not provided us with a profession. We have been given some of the equipment with which we can make a start. But only after we have proven ourselves capable, and are able to accept new responsibilities and challenges will we be able to consider ourselves professional people.

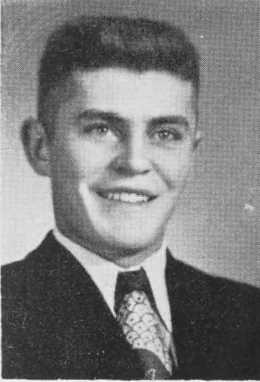

Finally the University has not, or should not, have given us any form of conceit. A university degree is definitely not designed to separate the graduate from his fellow man; rather, it should bring him into closer touch with mankind, and enable him to provide assistance in solving the problems which society faces.

The University has, however, provided us with one very valuable asset. It has given us a preparation for living and working in society, no longer as dependents, but as contributors. We are now expected to go into the community and earn our living as members. For some this will be an entirely new experience. Let us hope we can be worthy representatives of our University.

TIME MARCHES ON

The University year began on September 21st, with the registration of all students. This continued until September 23rd, when an assembly, bonfire and snake dance were held in the evening. On Thursday, Sept. 24th, the freshettes were entertained at a Wauneita tea. That evening the boys attended a smoker in the S.U.B. On Friday morning September 25th, classes began and, in the evening, many attended "Freshmen Frolic". On September 26th, the day-long Banff trip began, with swimming, sight-seeing, bowling and dancing on the agenda.

October was election month with the great event on October 9th. The results were announced at the dance "Elections Aftermath," that evening. The E. U. S. held its dance "Bat Ball" on October 30th, and the Wauneitas had their hayride on October 31st.

November was greatly looked forward to as the T.L.'s began their first round of practice teaching. November 13th was the date of a "Dogpatch" dance, put on by the Students' Union. On November 27th, a Pep Club dance was staged in connection with the girls' Round Robin Basketball Tournament.

December was a month of many varied activities. On December 4th the Lancaster Players from Vancouver presented "Macbeth" in our own auditorium. Then on December 11th, the Industrial Arts Club held their annual "Waltz Nite." The Choral Club put on a Christmas Concert at noon on December 18th, the day the exams ended.

Back to school on January 4th and the B.Ed's started their nine weeks of practice teaching. On January 16th, the U.A.B. teams made a trip to Edmonton. The Newman Club had their dance, "Deep Purple" on January 22nd, followed the next day, January 23rd, by the annual E.U.S. trip north on "Operation Eskimo." Some of the more hardy members of the University contributed to the Red Cross Blood Donor Clinic on January 27th. The last event in January was the Industrial Arts banquet held January 30th.

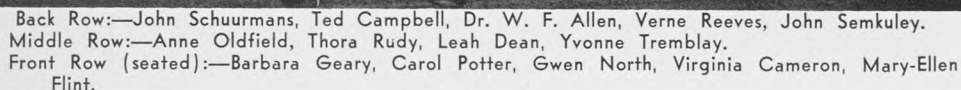

February ushered in a busy time beginning with the U. of A. Mixed Chorus, sponsored by the Calgary Branch, on February 4th and 5th. This was followed by "Operation Tepee," the Edmonton trip to Calgary on February 13th. February 16th was the start of the second round of T.L. practice teaching. On February 19th, "Snowflake Fantasy" was presented by the Wauneitas as their annual formal dance. "Come to the Fair" as the name of the variety show staged by the Choral Club on February 25th.

On March 4th, the Drama Club presented the play "A Phoenix Too Frequent." The Arts and Science Club held the annual "Test Tube Trot" on March 5th. During the following week Open House was carried out on March 10th. Spring elections were held on March 12th. On March 19th, "Color Nite Dance" was held and awards presented.

Closing Exercises were held April 9th, along with a reception and formal dance. After the festivities everyone settled down to exams which began on April 12th.

Everyone will long remember this busy but enjoyable year at the University of Alberta, Calgary Branch.

The Wauneita Society opened its round of activities during Freshman Week when the freshettes were entertained at a tea. Mrs. Doucette, Mrs. Finn, and Mrs. Graham assisted the president in receiving the guests while Dr. Roginsky, Miss Stadlebauer, Miss Cogswell, Miss Keeley and Miss Visser poured tea. Servers were second year girls.

A hay ride was held on October 31st, and was enjoyed by all despite the precariousness of the ride. A party followed at the Students' Union Building.

The Christmas Benefit this year enabled us to provide hampers of food and clothing for two needy city families. The hampers were packed and the Christmas tree decorated at a party for the girls held in the S.U.B. shortly before Christmas.

The 3rd annual Snowflake Fantasy, Wauneita's formal dance, was held on February 19th. The auditorium was changed to a tasteful green and gold ballroom by the efforts of the decorating committee. Assisting the president and her escort in the reception line were Dr. and Mrs. Doucette, Dr. and Mrs. Finn, Dr. and Mrs. Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Buxton. Highlight of the evening was the crowning of the Snow Chief, Mr. Steve Kapcsos, chosen by the girls as their favorite man on the campus.

The executive of the Calgary Wauneitas was invited to Varsity Guest Weekend by the Edmonton Wauneita Society. The president and vice-president were able to attend and spent an enjoyable weekend meeting Edmonton Wauneitas and viewing the campus.

The E. U. S. began a busy, enjoyable year with a Hallowe'en dance, "The Bats' Ball". In January three bus-loads of Calgary students embarked on "Operation Eskimo," the annual trip to Edmonton. The second E. U. S. dance formed part of "Operation Tepee" in February, when one hundred Edmonton E. U. S. members invaded our campus.

At the assemblies this year, we saw several entertaining Moody Institute Science films and heard a number of interesting speakers including Dean Smith and Basil Dean. Two lits, one staged jointly by the three T.L. classes, and the second put on by the B.Ed. students were enjoyed by both the audience and the participants. On November 10, we held a special Remembrance Day programme. This was the first time such a program had been attempted and it was well received by both students and faculty.

The Calgary E. U. S. was represented at the Western Canada Student Teachers' Conference in Saskatoon by Kaye Edwards, who came back convinced that her E. U. S. fees were well invested!

We should also mention at this point, further improvements in the E. U. S. office, we now have a desk and a typewriter.

Thanks to all Arts and Science Club Members, the Faculty and all other friends on our Calgary campus, the 1953-54 term proved to be one of great success. A most outstanding factor was the excellent spirit displayed by all Club members. It was this spirit which led to the following accomplishments.

Early in the fall, the club acquired a fully furnished office in the Students' Union Building. An excursion to the Shell Sulphur plant and a drilling rig at Jumping Pound, followed by an enjoyable party in the S.U.B., opened our social season.

Refreshments and movies proved to be good drawing cards for our general meetings; special meetings featured several guest speakers. Under the direction of Wayne Maxwell, the annual Test Tube Trot, with Bruce Bristow's orchestra, highlighted Calgary Varsity's Social Events. The dance acquainted many High School Seniors with the Calgary Branch.

In the final meetings of the year, a new constitution was adopted; Dr. Graham accepted the honorary Presidency and an honorary membership was given to Dr. Gibb whose ready assistance and advice was indispensable to the prosperity of the Arts and Science Club.

The first of Cal-Var's eight issues this year rolled off the presses in mid October. Last year's policy of having a fully printed newspaper and using solicited advertising was continued. The policy of having guest editorials was discontinued during the year. Coverage was given to all school events, a special highlight being the issue which commemorated "Operation Igloo."

After the "Grand Office Shuffle," Cal-Var found itself sharing an office with the Wauneita Society which proved to be a very harmonious arrangement. This larger office now allows at least three members of the staff to squeeze into it at one time.

Cal-Vette, a weekly news sheet, appeared on the campus as an experiment, during the month of March. It was well received by both faculty and students.

THE CHORAL CLUB

During the past year the Choral Club concerned itself with three main activities; (1) singing, (2) singing, (3) singing. Or to be more explicit; (1) A Christmas Concert, (2) promoting the concert of the Edmonton Mixed Chorus, (3) a variety concert.

The club started the season con spirito, with an accelerando which climaxed in a Christmas concert held in the auditorium at noon December 19, where some of the beautiful popular, as well as less known, Carols were rendered con espressione.

The post Christmas movement experienced a rather sudden smorzendo but interest was re-captured as our Musical Association sponsored the famous University of Alberta Mixed Chorus whose concerts on February 4th and 5th succeeded grandioso.

Enthusiasm was sostenuto as the club crescendoed to a climax with the very enjoyable scherzo, "Come to the Fair," a variety show which included dancing, balancing, comic and classic acts from different members of the school, as well as selections by the chorus.

One of the many active and enterprising organizations to be found on the campus this year was the Drama Workshop. Not only was it interested in the production of plays but during the course of the year presented such fine recordings of dramatic works as Shakespeare's "Othello", and Christopher Fry's "The Lady's Not for Burning."

On the eve of Thursday, March 4th, the University Drama Workshop turned "classic" and presented Christopher Fry's romantic comedy "A Phoenix Too Frequent." Fry's choice morsel of humor (and incidentally good fun for all those participating in any form) concerns a loyal Roman widow (Moyra Boyd) who, having resolved to follow her husband in the underworld, enters his tomb with her maid Doto (better known to us mortals as Rose Komlodi). The widow's ambitions are soon abandoned, however, when she falls in love with a Roman soldier, Tegeus, nicknamed Chromis (Raphael Engle) who, on night watch over six corpses, enters the tomb to eat his lunch. It takes these two earthlings exactly one half hour to realize that they are meant for each other, and after all, poor dead Virilius would probably want it this way. Inevitably fate takes a hand, in fact a whole body in the form of one of the six corpses which has mysteriously disappeared while Tegeus busied himself in the tomb. A court martial for our hero is certain. All seems lost for the two young lovers when—Virilius saves the day.

The stage was ably managed by Joyce Wontner while Joyce Kotow produced the sound effects. George Kinloch arranged the sets to their best advantage and make-up was skillfully applied by Laura Mae Stillings and John Gyorgy.

Our co-producers, directors, advisors, carpenters, artists, and our two sources of inspiration were the indefatigable Miss B. M. Newton and Dr. W. Watson.

The Industrial Arts Club is an organization of all Industrial Arts students. This club endeavors to bring the members into a closely-knit group where professional and social activities are discussed.

The highlight of the year was the seventh annual Waltz Night held December 11th in our auditorium. The theme of the dance was "Blue Moon" and streamers, colored lights and balloons created a mood which helped make the dance such a success.

On February 6th, the annual banquet was held in the Pump Room. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Wood, Dr. and Mrs. Doucette and Mr. and Mrs. Aikenhead. Following the banquet, Mr. Wood, principal of the Technical School, gave an interesting talk on developing one's own personality. Dr. Doucette read a prepared poem about each Industrial Arts member and his lady friend—most enjoyable! The remainder of the evening was occupied with games and dancing in the S.U.B.

THE CREATIVE WRITING CLUB

The Creative Writing Club was organized this year, for the purpose of gathering together in social fellowship, those students interested in creative writing. The first meeting was held in the S. U. B. at which, a president, Moyra Boyd and a vice-president, Dennis Clancy were elected. It was decided that the club should be open not only to those interested in creative writing, but also to those wishing to develop a critical taste in literature.

At one meeting, held at the school, a blackboard session was enjoyed. A fragment of a poem by G. M. Hopkins was put on the board and a limited time given to the members for the study and written criticism of the poem. We also experimented with responses from emotive words, thus determining which sense, auditory, visual or otherwise, provided each member with the emotion associated with the word.

Members of the club were encouraged to submit contributions to "Cal-Var" and to "Evergreen and Gold." Several meetings were devoted to discussion of the efforts of Frank Jordan, Moyra Boyd, Rose Komlodi, Fred Clandfield and Helen Eisert. Various modern poets and the merits, either present or absent, of their writings were an endless source of argumentative entertainment.

Occasional disagreements and numerous manifestations of the artistic temperament, so prevalent in an organization such as this, unfailingly presented themselves, and proved rather interesting.

In February the group attended a presentation of Christopher Fry's play "The Lady's Not For Burning" after which a lively discussion developed. All in all, the club has been extremely worthwhile, and of great interest to those concerned.

INTER-VARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP

The past year has proven busy and rewarding to all members who regularly attended the numerous I.V.C.F. functions. Bible studies were held every Thursday noon, while Tuesday noons were devoted to prayer. Several invited speakers dealt with the various vocational possibilities open to Christian students: Mr. G. Fowler, teacher; Mr. McIver, police work, Rev. W. Lang, Baptist minister, Miss Daver, missionary worker from India. Mr. J. Curry, Alberta staff member for the I.V.C.F., and Mr. H. Humphries were other speakers at our studies and socials.

The two highlights of the year were the Frosh Reception in September, and the Banff ski trip at New Years. The reception, termed a "get-acquainted night" for lonesome freshmen, was just that. The ski trip, held with the Edmonton I.V.C.F. group, was complete with fellowship, good food and numerous muscular pains.

Through these activities we have found in the past year that Christian sodality and unanimity are excellent ingredients for successful university life.

LATTER DAY SAINTS' CLUB

The L.D.S. Club is a new organization on campus which began its activities this year. Meetings, held every Monday night before Christmas and every other Monday night after Christmas, included business discussions, programmes and guest speakers. The club, which has a connection with the L. D. S. Institute on the Edmonton campus, chose as their motto "Gloria Dei Intelligentia" (The Glory of God is Intelligence) and also designed and ordered club pins. After Christmas religious groups were held every Tuesday and Thursday at noon and also a boys team was entered in the intra-mural basketball league.

The social calendar included a get acquainted party, toboggan party and fun nights, and was high-lighted by a very successful programme and dance held at the church in November.

Special thanks are due to our sponsors Mr. Charles Ursenbach and Mr. W. S. Jensen and to all those who aided us in getting our club started.

BOB CARD

LUTHERAN STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

The Lutheran Students' Association in Calgary is about two years old. Ed Hoff has been our president in these two years of pioneering. Ed is beginning another two-year term soon, but not as L.S.A. president; for Ed is going to New Guinea in June as a Mission Builder. We will miss Ed's leadership but wish him the best of luck in his undertaking.

We often feel quite small in Calgary, but that feeling soon vanishes when we realize that L.S.A. is the largest Protestant students' body in the world. Our neighboring L.S.A.'s have been very helpful in making us feel that we are a part of that big body. These L.S.A. groups are always willing to help and in January, Jim Hendrickson, president of the Western or Maple Leaf region, came from the U. of S. to visit with us. Again, early in February, the Edmonton local L.S.A. visited us. We felt rather outnumbered when fifteen Edmonton L.S.A.'ers descended on us and literally "took over."

After such inter-varsity get-togethers our weekly meetings every Tuesday seemed to have more meaning to us.

As the end of the term draws near, our thoughts turn to the International L.S.A. Convention, or Ashrom which is to be held on beautiful Interlochen, Michigan in July. For those of us who will be able to attend, the Ashrom will be a fitting climax to the memorable year we have spent in Calgary.

This year the Newman Club of the Calgary Branch of the U of A spent a very successful session, under the able direction of Father Moran. Highlights of the year included two retreats in November at the Mount St. Francis Retreat House, Cochrane, one for boys and one for girls, as well as the annual Newman dance held in January. Weekly meetings included talks by visitors and members, group discussions, films and various social activities. The club also took part in Communion Breakfasts and a panel discussion as part of the Catholic Youth Conference held in Calgary in the fall. The Annual Banquet was held in April.

The club maintained a close correspondence with the Pax Romana Congress. In addition, the club's constitution was accepted by the Canadian Federation of Newman Clubs, making 1953-54 the first year of official affiliation.

STUDENT CHRISTIAN MOVEMENT

The S.C.M. in Calgary is a non-denominational group of students with the purpose of trying to discover what Christ means to us today, through objective study and discussion of religious teachings. This year, the group met weekly in a series of studies, led by Rev. D. Walker, on central themes from the Scriptures, and their relevance to us in our present day situation.

The fall term was high-lighted by the visit of John McRae, who spoke to an E.U.S. assembly and at several churches on "Cultural Disintegration" as seen from Asia, on his recent trip.

At the Christmas Conference, our group was represented by two members who returned from Regina with enthusiastic accounts of the conference and its theme, "The Task of the Christian in the University." In February an alumni reunion and fireside was held, at which Mr. and Mrs. Willmott, recently back from China, led a discussion on "Christianity and Political Responsibility."

Several of our members hope to attend summer work camps in Montreal, Ottawa, and Calgary, which will be followed by a National Conference in September at Five Oaks, Ontario.

BOYS' BASKETBALL

The basketball season has once again come and gone and with it has graduated one of the better hoop squads to wear the green and gold of Cal-Var. Under the expert coaching of Mr. Lou Goodwin, the team enjoyed a fairly successful season.

Entered in the Calgary Inter-collegiate League, comprising Mount Royal, Tech and Varsity, the Varsity boys managed to subdue a stubborn Mount Royal team and entered and won the playoffs against their arch rivals from the Tech. Besides the play-off against Tech., the team entered the Provincial Intermediate Playdowns.

In addition to playing in the Inter-collegiate League, Varsity engaged in several exhibition games against Central High School Seniors (city champs) and Calgary Boys' Club. The team went on two road trips this year, both times travelling northwards to Edmonton. The first trip was most unsuccessful as the team lost both games to the University Bearcats; however, on the E. U. S. trip, the team easily defeated the opposition. Later in the season, the two northern teams repaid the visits. Once again the results showed a split in games—a second victory for the University Bearcats and a Calgary win over the Education team from Edmonton. All in all, the basketball team enjoyed a very successful season.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The season 1953-54 saw the organizing of the Inter-collegiate Basketball League in Calgary. The league consisted of the men's and women's teams from Mount Royal, the Tech and the University.

The Varsity women's team were sparked by a new coach from the Edmonton Pandas, Margaret Visser, who teaches Phys. Ed. and Psychology on the side.

Varsity had no difficulty winning over the Tech squad, but Mount Royal was another matter. In the middle of the season, Jo Clandfield was stolen away from us by an anonymous letter, but in spite of this blow the rest of the team put their heads together and came out with renewed inspiration. The team worked harder, tried to spread around the talents and managed to hold down second spot in the league.

Varsity and Mount Royal played a best of three series for the championship. With one game apiece, Varsity lost the final by one point in a thrilling finish.

Badminton is a fast rising sport on the athletic scene at Calvar. The club boasts a total membership of thirty-two students and is one of the largest organizations on campus.

The high-lights of Badminton competition were games between the Faculties of Education at Edmonton and Calgary. At Edmonton the Calgary teams, which were defeated 8 sets to 7 sets included Joyce Ferguson, Jerry Drake, Gen Gourdinne, Ethel Clements, Violet Sandburg, Joyce Brown, Doug Jones, Gary DeMan, Pete Stefanchuk, Jim Hawkes, Jerry Weber and Bob West. In the return match at Calgary, Calvar swept all events except the men's doubles. Due to the lack of facilities in Calgary only four contestants from each faculty competed. The Calvar players were Doug Jones, Gary DeMan, Joyce Ferguson and Violet Sandburg.

The first knock-out tournament, which was run off before Christmas resulted in victory for Joyce Ferguson and Jerry Weber.

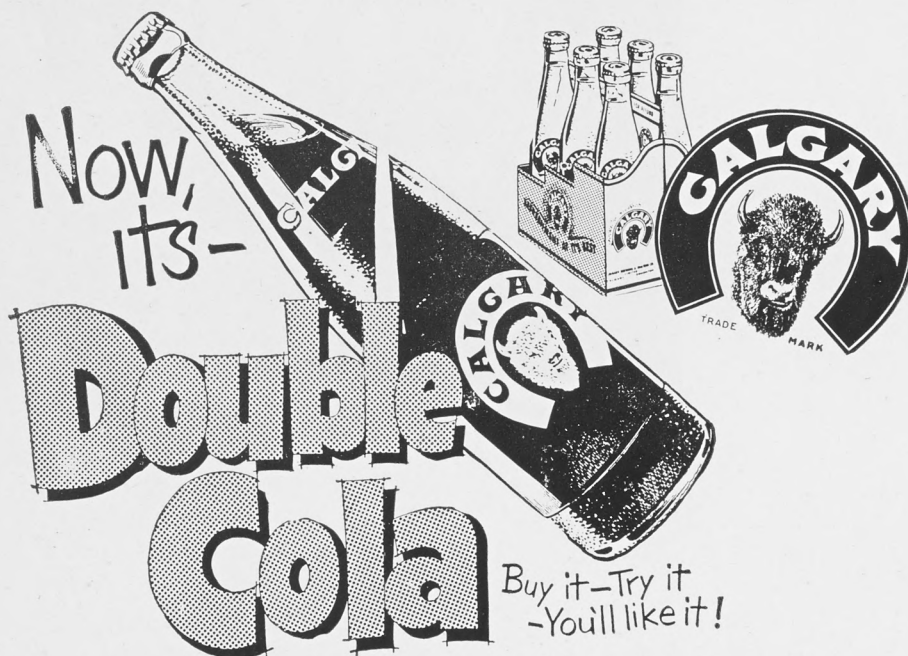

A round-robin tournament comprising four events (Blessed Event, Current Event, Hard Luck, Champion Ship) was run off during the Spring term.

VOLLEYBALL

The University of Alberta's (Calgary Branch) Volleyball Team consisted of members from each faculty on the campus.

Volleyball practices started early in October and a team was picked which consisted of Steve Groszko (coach), Bryan Targett, Andrew Birchill, Don Marson, Robert Kubicek, Marvin Baker, Oliver Stonehocker, and Rudy Wiebe. This Volleyball Team entered the Foothills Volleyball League in Calgary where they played against teams from the Y.M.C.A., Alberta Bible College, Calgary Firemen, P.P.C.L.I., Tecumseh, and Tech. The boys ended up in third place and thus became eligible for the Foothills Volleyball Playoffs. The "B" team from the Y.M.C.A. won over the U. of A. team in the semifinals.

This same University Team played in Edmonton during the "Operation Igloo" weekend where they came up against the Edmonton Education Volleyball Team in a best of five series. The Calgary Team lost out in the fifth game by a score of 15 to 10 after tying up the series at two games apiece. The Calgary U. of A. Team had their revenge during "Operation Teepee" when Edmonton came to Calgary. The boys played a very fine game and used teamwork plays to "scalp" Edmonton three games straight to take a best of five series.

THE "PEP" CLUB

The fighting teams of our University were ably supported this year by the "Pep" Club. At the first meeting of this new organization, a president, Marvey Ridley and a secretary-treasurer, Bev. Mahura were elected and eight cheerleaders were chosen.

Four of these green and gold uniformed girls were to be seen at all Varsity basketball games, both at home and in Edmonton. Members of this group, lead by Anne Ruddy, were: Bernice Lutes, Bev Mahura, Carmel Despins, Leah Dean, Jean Wittal and Zannie Stearns.

The Cheerleaders practiced hard, and developed a number of new cheers and routines.

IS IT ALL WORTHWHILE?

When you hear,
"My b's were much too fat
So I skinnied 'em up like that."
From a big grinned boy,
When a toothless Grade 1 lass
Learns a word in reading class
And with twinkle and a dimple
Says the word is now quite simple,
When a girl in early teens
Like her brother, wearing jeans,
Learns to write a little neater
And smiles at you when'er you meet her,
When all these youngsters
Bright and dimmer
Get another gleam or glimmer
From your lesson plans and efforts.
Then you know it's all worthwhile
Looking back, reflective smile, —
Weeks of study and practice teaching
Make a teacher's goal worth reaching.

Here where the water lies stagnant and sombre,
Covered with algae and smothered with weeds,
Here was all leaping and liling and laughter,
Blue limpid water, and tall silver reeds.

This was enchanted land, given to fairies;
Through long summer evenings they danced on the lea.
Silver and golden, all airy and fleeting,
Enchanted fairyland youth gave to me.

Tall silver reeds bowing over the water,
Bending and dipping to wind harmonies.
Some that were swayed with each sibilant whisper
Were fashioned by fairies for flute melodies.

When the wind, wearied of hearing its murmur,
Was hushed in the rushes that grew by the side,
Then airy music swelled higher and clearer,
Lingered in sadness till echoes replied.

Now, weary, I wait at the edge of the water
Where grey reeds are broken, and evening is chill.
All that I hear is the wind's rising murmur,
Where flutes and their music are fallen and still.

L'Etude

L'étude, chose profonde,
Abstraite par définition
Concrète en résultats;
Renfermant un monde
De devoirs, consultations,
Explications; attentats
Au savoir humain;
Développé d'âge en âge,
Discuté en d'innombrables pages
Et toujours sans fin
Excepté au Divin —

Aussi un commencement
A toute sphère, a tout temps.

RAIN

A desolate shack upon a plain
Looks beyond the falling rain.
A farmer, eyes uplifted, knows
The trusting faith of one who sows.
Worn hands outstretched, his thanks, revealed
The hopeful thoughts now long concealed.
The lady for sale in a nearby town
Walks quickly by, her head bowed down.
Thoughts ill-concealed and full of hate
Curse God for her unwanted fate.
The shadowed lanes in darkness lurk
While all around a gloomy murk
Decries the desolation there.
Nothing but oblivion everywhere.

MAKE DELIGHTFUL EATING

ATHLETES
EAT NEILSON'S
JERSEY MILK
CHOCOLATE
FOR ENERGY

It is a striking fact that many of the outstanding athletes train on chocolate because it is a food and an energy producer.

Chocolate is a creator of vigor and nerve force and supplies the body with that extra energy—that added punch—that is necessary to win.

Jersey Milk Chocolate is the finest of all milk chocolate. Experts say the habit of eating a bar of Jersey Milk Chocolate every day is a healthful one to form.
